WEDNESDAY EVENING, JAN. 27, 1909.

Local Matters.

Sun and Tide Table.

Sun rises tomorrow at 7.10 and sets at 5.10. High water at 11.50 a. m. and 1.30 p. m.

Weather Probabilities.

For this section fair tonight and Thursday; warmer tonight; moderate southwesterly winds.

CHARGED WITH LARCENY.

The police of this city were yesterday requested to look out for Frances Browner, colored, aged 11 years, who, it was alleged, had stolen a gold watch and chain, and a purse, containing 50 cents, from Mrs. Slavmaker, wife of Mr. A. C. Slavmaker, 931 O street southwest Washington, a former resident of this city. The girl was employed by Mrs. Slavmaker as a housegirl. On Monday Frances disappeared, and so did the watch and chain and purse. Officer Sampson arrested the accused at her home in this city, and when asked what she had done with the articles, the girl replied that she had given them to a white woman to keep for her. She said she went to the house of a strange woman, saw the bell, was admitted, and asked the woman to keep the watch and purse for her, explaining she would return for them the following day. The watch and chain and the purse were recovered, but the money was missing. The girl is locked up at the House of Detention in Washington, she having been turned over to an officer from that city yesterday evening.

AWARDED A MEDAL.

An act of heroism that was performed more than a quarter of a century ago and which remained unrecognized by the government for that length of time has just come to light and Capt. William Goghegan, master of the steamer Anne Arundel, of the Maryland, Delaware and Virginia Steamboat Company, has been rewarded by a medal for bravery. The medal was presented to him by the Treasury Department at Washington yesterday. Captain Goghegan on December 10, 1876, while master of the steamer Sea, of the old Weems line, was proceeding down the Chesapeake when he rescued Midshipmen J. A. Smith, of the navy, and 16 men from the flagship Hartford, who had left their ship in a small boat for some reason, and owing to the severity of the weather were unable to get back. When rescued the men were almost helpless, as owing to the high wind and the splashing of the spray they were covered with ice and in a pitiful condition.

MONUMENT ASSOCIATION.

The first of the series of entertainments to be given by the George Washington Monument Association for the benefit of the park fund, the proceeds to be used in beautifying the park, will take place in the Young People's Building on February 4. It will be a colored stereoscopic lecture entitled "Land of a Thousand Wonders," by Frank Helling, of Boston. The monument association is not at present prepared to spend any great amount of money on the park owing to the fact that many of the lots have been sold on long time payments and as the land for the park has been paid for the association desires to see the park opened to the public on the 30th of April. As every citizen is directly interested in this work it is hoped that all will respond liberally to the appeal for aid along this line.

DEATH OF MISS ELIZA SMITH.

Miss Eliza W. Smith, eldest daughter of the late Rev. George A. Smith, died yesterday at Dr. Lane's Sanitarium, Chestnut Hill, Philadelphia, aged 80 years. Miss Smith was well known in Alexandria where she spent most of her life, having left this city a year or two ago on account of ill health. She was a Christian woman, much given to church and charitable work, in which she took great interest and for years had been prominently connected with the board of managers of the Alexandria Hospital. She leaves a brother, Judge George H. Smith, of Los Angeles, Cal., and a sister, Miss Billie Smith, now of Albemarle county. Her remains will be brought to this city for interment in the family lot in Ivy Hill.

INSTALLATION.

There was a full attendance of the members of Oriental Lodge, No. 6, Knights of Pythias, last night. Two applications for membership were received and referred to committees. The following officers were installed by Deputy Grand Chancellor Ernest R. Boyer: O. C., C. W. Conway; V. C., E. W. Armco; P. H. Friedlander; M. of W., R. H. Rowland; K. of R. and S. F., W. Latham; M. of F., R. H. Hancock; M. of E., W. H. May; M. A. H., O. W. Phillips; I. G. E. R. Boyer; O. G. M. R. Norris. Representative to Grand Lodge, M. R. Norris. The committee on good of the order is arranging an interesting programme to be rendered in the near future.

TREMENDOUS RUSH.

One could have hardly thought that after the big show of Monday night the Opera House would be crowded, but it is a fact. Last night there were hardly seats enough to accommodate the people who came in. It was this way from 7 o'clock till 10.30. The management have secured a big hit in securing Biener and Carl the black face comedians. They are the acme of the profession and are, without doubt, worth the price of admission. Miss Charlotte Wilson appeared last night and received encore after encore. She has a good voice, she is pretty, and she appealed very favorably to the magnificent audience. Entire change tonight.

WILL PROBATED.

The will of the late Mrs. Isabella Field was admitted to probate today. She leaves all of her estate to her daughter, Miss Mary Alice Field, during her life, at her death or marriage to be divided equally between all her children. The estate is valued at about $8,000.

NEW POSTAL STATION.

An additional postal station will be opened for the sale of stamps and money order business, at W. D. Hudson's drug store 1300 King street, on February 1st.

The Red Cross Shoes for tender feet. The ladies who wear the Red Cross Shoe always wear a smile. Sold only by J. A. Marshall & Bro., 432 King street.

YOUNG MEN'S SENATE.

At a regular meeting of the Young Men's Senate held last night, there was but one change made in the present constitution. This was that the Senate is now allowed to change the constitution by a two-third vote of the members present at any regular meeting. The other changes that had been made considered were allowed to go over till a future meeting. Committees were appointed by President Garner to arrange for an anniversary banquet to be held February 16th in the Senate chamber. Disregarding speakers will be present on this occasion which promises to be the most successful social event ever given by the Senate. To all of its social affairs previously given the public has been invited, and this will be the first to be held exclusively for the members.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. Henry Randolph Burke was hostess yesterday afternoon at one of the largest and most enjoyable of the winter's card parties. She entertained in the handsome old family residence on Wilkes street, and seven hand euchre was played. The successful contestants for the beautiful prizes were Mrs. Clarence O. Leadbeater, Mrs. David J. Howell and Mrs. Albert Bryan.

Although still weak from the effects of an operation, Col. John S. Mosby yesterday returned to his office in the Department of Justice in Washington. Col. Mosby has been ill for some time.

Mr. Samuel Davis, of Norfolk, Va., who has been spending the week with his father, Mr. Haywood Davis, in Fairfax county, and incidentally seeing the sights with his brother, Judge O. B. Davis, of the firm of Fairfax & Co., will leave today on the Norfolk steamer for home.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.] The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Harry Day, colored, charged with disorderly conduct toward Julia Jackson, colored, was fined $5.

Charles Miller, colored, charged with assaulting Rose Ford, also colored, was fined $5.

Malvin Newman, colored, charged with assaulting Lizzie Gaines, also colored, was fined $5.

ENJOYMENT FOR ALL.

An enormous crowd flocked to the Alexandria Amusement Company's hall last night and were highly entertained. It was the consensus of opinions of all that the pictures were of the first order. It is generally understood that the management at this house places before the eager gaze of its large patronage nothing but the best show and for this reason they are favored with a crowd on all occasions. A change of programme tonight and a good one, too.

CALKING IRONS FOUND.

A number of calking irons which had been stolen from a colored man nearly a month ago, were recovered yesterday by Officer Young. They were found in a store, the proprietor of which has been engaged in business in this city but a short time. He did not know the name of the man from whom he purchased the tools, nor that he was required to report his purchases to the station house. The dealer was given blank forms and told he must obey the law in the future.

SHRINER'S JEWEL.

A handsome Shriner's jewel has been donated to the Masonic fair by Mr. N. Meyer, of Washington, and will be awarded to the most popular Shriner in Alexandria. The jewel is on exhibition in the window of Acton & Son's store. Among those who will be voted for are: Judge Bailey, Mayor Paff, Dr. T. R. Cochran and Messrs. C. B. Marshall, Geo. Schwarzmann, Thos. Fisher and H. K. Field.

BOAT CLUB.

The girl, Mary Bohner, 21 years old, says she wishes to be faithful to her parents and also that she really thinks she loves the man. The bridegroom is Ong Sing, proprietor of a restaurant at No. 18 Mott street.

The Clothiers' Board of Trade of Baltimore yesterday notified the labor leaders that it had decided to abandon the threatened lockout plan and would let Strouse & Bros., settle its strike only. The board did not tell the union leaders, however, that it had decided to adopt the employment bureau system, which will bar all union men. Under the bureau system a record will be kept of every workman.

THE DOCTOR'S QUESTION.

Advice Against the Use of Harsh Purgatives and Physics

A doctor's first question when consulted by a patient is, "Are your bowels regular?" He knows that ninety-eight per cent of illness is attended with inactive bowels and torpid liver. This condition poisons the system with noxious gases and waste matter which naturally accumulates and which must be removed through the bowels before health can be restored.

Salts, ordinary pills and cathartics may be truly likened to dynamite. Through their harsh, irritating action they force a passage through the bowels causing pain and damage to the delicate intestinal structure which weakens the whole system, and at best only produce temporary relief. The repeated use of such treatments cause chronic irritation of the stomach and bowels, hardens their tissues, deadens their nerves, stiffens their muscles and generally brings about an injurious habit which sometimes has fatal results.

We promise to return the purchaser's money in every case when it fails to produce entire satisfaction. This remedy is called ELLIOTT'S. We urge you to try them at our entire risk. Retail Ordinaries are very pleasant to take, they act quickly and have a soothing, strengthening, healing influence on the entire intestinal tract. They do not purge, gripe, cause nausea, flatulence, excessive looseness, diarrhoea or other annoying effect, and they may be taken at any time without any inconvenience.

Retall Ordinaries overcome the dragging habit of cure constipation and all similar ailments, whether acute or chronic. They are especially good for children, we keep them on old folks. Price, 30c tablets, 25c and 12 tablets, 10c. W. P. Taylor, 616 King street.

After discussing for two days how best the dependent children of the nation should be cared for, the members of the special conference called by the president closed its deliberations in Washington last night by unanimously asking President Roosevelt to form a federal bureau to supervise the care of these dependent wards of the community, and to recommend that Congress enact laws for the betterment of orphans in the District of Columbia and other federal territory. The members received the promise of the president that he would ask Congress for such legislation as the conference desired, but he seemed to doubt its early enactment.

One day Natalie, the queen, became very sick. Her courtiers carried her into the court chamber and the court chamberlain called to the court physician who ordered a court plaster and said she must have caught a cold. But Natalie kind of thought she had apendicitis (you see, being a queen she could have most anything she wanted). But that medicine man was a wise guy. After reminding a little he finally diagnosed her malady as "monopis" (improper feeding) and ordered her to eat nothing but those irresistibly delicious Auth Sausages and Ham Sylvan Blondheim, The Auth Stand, City Market.
